STAKES TO JAMES REDDICK.

OUTGAMES GOLDIC IN HARD DRIVE FOR OLD HICKORY HANDICAP.

Society Bud Wins for McLaughlin at 30 to 1 —Reticent a Victorious Long Shot—Old John Peters in Front.

New Orleans, La., January 8.—The Old Hickory Handicap at a mile and a quarter, which featured the card at City Park this afternoon, was won by C. R. Ellison's James Reddick, second choice in the betting. Only four started. Goldie and Alma Dufour represented Edward Corrigan and were strongly supported as favorites. James Reddick carried a good sized stable commission. Gold, from the stable of Burlew & O'Neill, was fancied mostly for the place, but the going and distance militated greatly against his chances and he tired after being a sharp factor for the first mile. Goldie was the leader to the stretch turn, where there was a general closing up for an instant. Then James Reddick gradually forged to the front and in the sharp drive that followed, outgamed Goldie. Alma Dufour came with a rush that landed her in third place. The net value of the stake to the winner was $1,390.

The mile and a half race was next in point of interest. It was won in hollow fashion by Padre, the overwhelming favorite. A fair lot of three-year-olds met in the third race at seven furlongs. Beau Brummel liked the going and wore down Glamour in the first three-quarters, beating her handily. The performance of Morales was too bad to be a true showing of his form. He failed to display any great amount of speed at any stage of the race and was beaten off at the end. Track conditions were exactly to the liking of Ralbert, which won the second race from Goldproof. Society Bud, at 30 to 1, enabled James McLaughlin's colors to be seen in front for the first time this winter. The filly showed a smart performance by leading almost throughout in the closing race. Reticent, also a neglected long shot, helped out the bookmakers. The presence of J. Shea on John Peters in the opening race kept many from backing him. Shea rode a good race and landed his mount an easy winner.

Today's attendance was unusually large, but, according to the bookmakers, the people were in no speculative mood. Thirty-seven layers handled the money and more would have been in line but for the fact that the ring will not accommodate more booths.

THE JOCKEY CLUB MEETS TOMORROW.

F. C. Bishop May Be Chosen to Fill Vacancy Occurring with Mr. Cassatt's Death.

New York, January 8.—The annual meeting of the Jockey Club members will be held Thursday, together with an important session of the Board of Stewards, while the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association will also convene in annual session. At the Jockey Club meeting a new member will doubtless be elected to fill the vacancy left by the death of A. J. Cassatt. The membership is limited to fifty and there are a number of names on the waiting list. While the subject has probably not been considered, yet it would not be surprising to see Francis C. Bishop elected to fill the vacancy. Mr. Bishop is one of the young men in racing, but has taken much interest in the sport in the last two years, and membership in the Jockey Club would be a fitting reward for the zeal he has shown in furthering the interest of the turf. His purchase of the horse Adam, for a large sum made evident that with him racing is no passing fancy and that he is in the sport as a fixture.

The National Steeplechase and Hunt Association will elect four stewards, three of which will be renewals, while the other is to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of E. V. R. Thayer of Boston. Mr. Thayer had taken but a passing interest in racing since Mr. Chamblet's retirement as an owner of a big steeplechase stable. Previous to that both he and Robert C. Hooper were on the board, but with his resignation Boston has no representative in the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association.

As Boston provides annually the most prominent meeting run exclusively under the rules of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, a meeting that is an undoubted credit to the sport, the city should not be without representation in the Board of Stewards. The name of Charles H. Hayden naturally is suggested as the best man to represent Boston. For two years he has been chairman of the Executive Committee of the Country Club, and the success of the recent meetings has been in a large measure due to his untiring efforts. Mr. Hayden is much interested in steeplechasing and there is no doubt that he would himself race a pretentious stable had he the time to devote to racing.

IN THE FORFEIT LIST.

The last edition of the Calendar contains the annual forfeit list. Its figures seem to indicate that collections were rigidly enforced last year and the sum total of delinquency is materially smaller than in former years. Only eleven owners are in for any considerable sums, they being in the order of their obligations. The Pepper Stable, $1,655; J. C. Cooley, $1,300; John Tevis, $1,160; H. Stover, $1,025; James Beattie, $1,020; W. S. Williams, $975; J. Rudolph, $700; Mrs. H. B. Durham, $660; F. D. Knight, $520; J. B. Respass, $495 and S. C. Wagner, $430. To show that entering horses in big stakes is not a matter to be lightly undertaken, it might be said that all of Mr. Tevis' considerable bill for forfeits was incurred through nominating one horse, Goldsmith, to stakes at Sheephead Bay, Brighton Beach, Saretoga and Belmont Park.

COLD AND RAINING AT LOS ANGELES.

Mere Handful Sees the Racing at Ascot Park—Little Interest—Light Betting.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 8.—Winterish weather, in conjunction with a ceaseless downpour of rain, brought out only the regulars to Ascot Park. It was the smallest crowd of the meeting. Little interest attached to the racing and the betting was consequently light.

The feature of the day was the fourth race, a free handicap for four-year-olds and upward over the Brooks Course, but this was marred somewhat by the running away of Niblick, which broke to a false start and ran seven and one-half furlongs before being stopped.

J. F. Donohue, proved his mud running ability by easily defeating Dusty Miller and Cigarlighter. He wore down Dusty Miller in the last sixteenth and was going away fast. Cigarlighter plainly showed that the distance was too far for him.

Armo made a show of some of the best three-year-olds here in a seven furlongs dash, simply smothering them with speed. Colonel Jack, owing to a recent injury, ran a somewhat dull race. It will require almost a week of good weather to make the track fast again.

PROMPTLY NAMED YOUNG HORSES.

Probably the promptest owner in this country in the matter of naming his youngsters is Mr. August Belmont. This is exemplified in the fact that alone of all the important owners making entries to the National Stallion Race his nominations, with three exceptions in a list of thirty-one, were of named foals of 1906. In the main they are well named, but there is one case of illegal duplication, the colt by Octagon—Lack-a-Daisy being called Lawsonian. How this name could pass the Registrar of the Stud Book when the colt Lawsonian, by Plaudit—Miss Pry ran at Benning's so recently as November 27, is hard to understand. It is to be hoped the name of Mr. Belmont's colt has been incorrectly printed in the Calendar. In the meantime the names embodying Mr. Belmont's hope for success in the events of 1908 for two-year-olds are:

Donatus, b. c. by Hastings—Donna de Oro.
Eustacian, b. c. by Hastings—St. Eudora.
High Dance, b. c. by Hastings—La Danseuse.
Madman, b. c. by Hastings—Lady Madge.

Field Mouse, b. f. by Hastings—Flittermouse.
Fizgig, b. f. by Hastings—Fidena.
Fontanel, b. f. by Hastings—Fond Hopes.
Gloriole, ch. f. by Hastings—Glory.
Sumach, b. or blk. f. by Hastings—Souveraine.
Tarpaulin, b. f. by Hastings—Tarpaulin.
Valence, ch. f. by Hastings—Lady of the Valley.

Bay Tree, b. c. by Collar—Black Poplar.
Melodeon, b. c. by Collar—Mem Sahib.
Bushey Top, b. c. by Bushey Park—Topiary.

Mr. Belmont's unnamed ones in the National Stallion race are:

Chestnut colt, by Hastings—Priscilla.
Chestnut colt, by Hastings—Fairy Gold.
Chestnut filly, by St. Blaise—Fizgig.

CRUZADOS VERSUS SHOT GUN.

Oakland, Cal., January 8.—"Lucky" Baldwin is anxious to race Cruzados against Shot Gun. He had a long talk with President Tom Williams a day or two ago during which he suggested that the club offer a purse for the two horses.

"You talk the race over with Walter Jennings," said the president, "and decide upon what kind of a race you want and the association will hang up a suitable purse."

Jennings and Baldwin finally got together, but could not quite agree on the distance. The owner of Santa Anita suggested a series of races, the first to be at five and one-half furlongs. If Cruzados should win, the second race is to be at six furlongs or at five furlongs if Shot Gun should win.

The association will doubtless put on a race which it is expected will suit both Cruzados and Shot Gun, but a third starter is desired. Race-goers would like to see Cruzados and Shot Gun try conclusions, irrespective of any other contestant.

TENNESSEE EXPECTS SANE LAW.

The Tennessee Legislature convened at Nashville Monday and the racing interests of the state scored a victory over the reform element in the election of the speakers of both houses. As Speaker of the Senate, E. G. Tollett was elected, and as Speaker of the House, G. T. Cunningham was chosen on the third ballot. While neither of these gentlemen has made any detailed statement concerning their views as to racing, it is known that they will oppose any measure intended to abolish the sport in Tennessee. Dispatches from Nashville are to the effect that a compromise in the form of a law creating a State Racing Commission similar to that in Kentucky is to be expected. It may also come to pass that a limit will be placed on the number of days racing at each track annually. During the past two weeks there have been several conferences between representatives of the Tennessee Breeders' Association and the New Memphis Jockey Club, and the two organizations are working in perfect harmony.

STARTER HOLTMAN'S MISTAKE.

Starter Holtman makes the mistake of bunching his horses too much at the start. This causes considerable interference and is responsible for what looks like bad starts.—San Francisco Chronicle.

TO INCREASE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Messrs. Cella, Condon and Tilles to Be Named by Crescent City Jockey Club.

New Orleans, La., January 8.—C. A. Tilles arrived this morning from St. Louis in advance of L. A. Cella to be in attendance at the meeting of the Crescent City Jockey Club directors tomorrow. Mr. Tilles says the board will be increased and that John Condon, L. A. Cella and himself will be the new directors.

Asked regarding the rumors concerning the amalgamation of the Western Jockey Club and American Turf Association, Mr. Tilles said: "I know nothing of the matter other than what I read in the papers. Personally, I have never heard of a merger being suggested, let alone discussed by those who would have to bring it about, and I cannot see where there is a call for one. It has always been my theory to let well enough alone. New Orleans has never had so successful a racing season as is the present one, and judging from the number of eastern people that came in with me, it is going to get better. With the present keen interest in the sport I think matters should be left as they are and I think they will."

M. J. Winn will arrive tonight and will have a conference with Messrs. Cella and Condon relative to dates at Louisville next spring.

NATIONAL STALLION AND MATRON.

Two great stakes offered by the Westchester Racing Association that closed for entries December 15, the National Stallion Race of 1908, and the Matron Stakes filled very well. The nominations to the National Stallion were of foals of 1906, and numbered in all 225. One of the most notable entry lists is that of Mr. H. P. Whitney, thirteen of his fifteen being by Hamburg and one, a chestnut colt, being by King Edward's famous racer and sire Persimmon—Urania. Mr. Whitney nominated Persimmon to render this aristocratically bred youngster eligible. His Hamburgs are colts from Kildeer, Melba, Endurance by Right, Mincola, Daisy F., Vespers, Lady Frivolis, Xela and Regatta and fillies from Blue Girl, Equality, Elusive and Irish Reel. His other nominee is a chestnut colt, by Meddler—Handspan. If all those grandly-bred Hamburgs train well there should be among them some to emulate the deeds of Artful, Burgomaster and Hamburg Belle. Clarence Mackey has in another striking band in ten Meddlers and one Hamburg, the Meddlers being colts from Won by Waiting, Strike-a-Light and Admiration, and fillies from Kamara, Chinkara, Heartache, Rotha, Correction, Ballantrae, and Spectrum. His one by Hamburg is a chestnut filly from Trigger. John E. Madden leads in number of nominations with thirty-seven, closely followed by J. B. Haggin with thirty-six and A. Belmont with thirty-one. Barney Schreiber has in eighteen, of which seven are by Bamcockbur eight by Sain, two by Sir Hercules and one by Sain or Sir Hercules.

The Matron Stakes of 1909 received an entry list of 416 mares. This is a falling off from preceding years, but is largely accounted for by the absence of J. B. Haggin's name from the list of nominators. August Belmont heads the list with fifty-eight mares, twenty-eight bred to Hastings, twenty-one to Octagon, two to Don de Oro, and one each to Meddler, Hamburg, Florizel II., Ethelbert, Ortegale, Yankee and Melton. The one bred to Meddler was Beldame. James R. Keene nominated thirty-eight mares. John E. Madden and H. T. Oxnard twenty-nine each. H. P. Whitney thirty, Clarence A. Mackey twenty-three, and Barney Schreiber twenty. In the Oxnard band are fifteen bred to Islington, the sire of Kinley Mack. They are Castalla, Spanish Match, Desirable, Futurita, Wealth, Tustanith, Andrisa, Bettie Bramble, Marjoram, Price, Miss Laudeman, Lady Appleby, Clipper, Intimidation and Marcianesi.

W. S. FANSHAWE TO RACE AGAIN.

New York, January 8.—W. S. Fanshawe, who, since Clarence H. Mackay transferred his stallions and mares to Kingston stud in Kentucky, is occupying Lucien O. Appleby's Silver Brook farm in New Jersey, will come back to the turf this year with a racing stable of respectable proportions. At the sales last summer Mr. Fanshawe bought eight yearlings which, together with five or six of the get of Heno—which stallion and some fifteen mares Mr. Fanshawe has at Silver Brook—were broken by Louis Stuart. Jack Odom, brother of George Odom, the former jockey who is now training a stable at Sheephead Bay, has since been engaged as trainer and within the next ten days will take charge of the Fanshawe horses.

Mr. Fanshawe did not pay fancy prices for the youngsters he bought. The highest was $400 for the half sister to Ruby Ring and Garter Knight, a bay filly by Toddington—Kissing Ring. He gave $350 for the brown filly by Gerolstein—Alema; $250 for the bay filly by Indio—Daralita; $200 each for the fillies by Sir Hampton—Golden Horn, Glenheim—Jennie Riley, Blues—Corvette, Gold Spinner—Las o'Brae, and $100 for the brown filly by Lissak—Glensetto.

HITCHCOCK GOES ABROAD.

New York, January 8.—Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., owner of Good and Plenty, Hylas and other good jumpers, as well as owning a half interest in Salvadore, sailed today for a trip to England, Ireland and France. Mr. Hitchcock may, while abroad, purchase some good Irish or English jumpers to replenish his stable here.

GEORGE WHITNEY BUYS WORK.

Lexington, Ky., January 8.—George H. Whitney has bought of L. C. Fant the six-year-old thoroughbred mare Work, dam of Work-a-Day.

MILLER'S DAY OF TROUBLE.

MESSES THINGS BADLY ON MARY F. AND GETS BOLOMAN DISQUALIFIED.

Hardly Expected to Win on Miss May Bowdish—Crowd Expresses Its Disapproval—Durnell Party Wins Big Bet.

Oakland, Cal., January 8.—Walter Miller was in the limelight today with a vengeance. The champion jockey disdained to ride in the first three races and then made a bad mess of the three attempts in the closing half of the program. In the feature race, fourth on the card, he laid himself open to criticism by his reprehensible handling of the heavily backed favorite, Mary F., which should have won off by herself. At the finish the half sister to Shot Gun figured in the role of runner-up to the despised outsider Hector, because the "wizard" rider had indulged the fast, but non-stayer Marshall gelding too long and was unable to overhaul him in a belated sprint. Van Ness' showing in this race was poor enough to incite criticism.

It was generally conceded that Miller was on "a lobster" with Miss May Bowdish in the race following, but on Boloman, the prohibitive favorite in the closing race, he was simply deprived of a rating on the best horse by deliberately fouling the two contenders, Mandator and Fulletta, during the greater part of the race.

A throng of excited racegoers gathered around the stewards' stand after the finish and yelled loudly for a disqualification. Their demands were promptly complied with. In accordance with a unique local racing rule Boloman was placed third, behind the horses he impeded.

Only one real favorite, Nonie Lucille, was successful. "Boots" Durnell and his connections are said to have unlimbered on this one to the extent of $30,000. It was generally understood that the loss incurred by McCafferty by having his mare bid up was made good by her backers. Durnell was not so fortunate with Neptunus in the fifth, his novice, Thurston, tossed off a big wager on this one for his employer. Andrew Mack was the nominal favorite, but he carried not a little of the wagers that Neptunus failed to land. McCafferty claimed Roscoe in the third for $725 and immediately re-sold him to F. W. Doss for an advance of $200. W. M. Caine claimed Neptunus out of the fifth for $725. This is thought to be a bona fide claim.

Jockey J. Ranch and wife are visiting Oakland. They will leave for France in February. Jockey E. Robinson left for Cleveland tonight. L. Williams has recovered from recent injuries and will ride Joe Coyne in tomorrow's feature race.

FEW "QUEER LOOKING" RACES.

"Although I had a losing season," said David C. Johnson, the racetrack plunger to the New York Sun, "I want to say that all of my reverses were caused by what is known as racing luck. Under the Jockey Club's control racing here last year was cleaner than ever before. There were very few queer looking races, and public form was by no means a delusion and a snare, as some persons tried to make it out. I made some big bets which were winners and also some liberal wagers which were unsuccessful, but I never saw anything wrong beyond the form reversals over which nobody had any control. I do not believe that racing in England, France or any other foreign country is as well conducted as the sport in the state of New York. The public is well protected here and so are the horsemen. There is plenty of money for everybody, and above all the sport is on the square. As far as the speculative end of racing is concerned, I do not believe that two men can be prevented from making a personal wager on the result of a race any more than in other sporting events where there is an element of chance. It is more a matter of judgment that must be used in playing the races than sheer luck, and that is why honest racing has been so widely appreciated and patronized by the public."

NOW A CLOTHES HORSE.

Walter Duffy, six years old, by G. W. Johnson—Manola, by Glenelg, is pulling a laundry wagon at Covington, Ky. In his racing days he was a good "badge horse." In his present employment he is paying for his oats.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

J. F. S., Chicago. The bets stand as the horses finished.

J. McQ., Toronto, Ont. You cannot get them in Oakland. Our price is $5 a week.

John H. S., Chicago. The parlay Platoon to win and Dusty Miller place won and should be paid, but only as a straight bet on Platoon, there being no separate place betting on Dusty Miller.

A. D., Chicago. The weakness of your case was in the use of "if coming." Manifestly the sum "coming" in cash was not equal to the sum named to be bet on Lena J. Any fair minded bookmaker would nevertheless pay that bet, because of your credit and long dealing. But if a bookmaker who hates to pay out money chooses to hold you to the strict wording of a bet you have no recourse.

ESTIMATING THE JOCKEYS OF 1906.

Shaw's Consistency—Martin's Luck—Radtke's Incurability—Lyne's Mistake.

"Stake Winning Jockeys in 1906" is the caption of an interesting review appearing in the current issue of Sports of the Times, and from which the following paragraphs have been taken:

"Glancing through the records of 1906, and taking only the stakes worth $4,000 and over as worthy of consideration, Miller stands at the head with a total of only $113,957, where, in 1905, stood Nicol with $151,220. (Miller eleventh on the list with just over $10,000), and where, in 1904, stood Hildebrand with $173,045.

"The $113,877 of Miller was more widely scattered than the record of any preceding boy at the head of the list. With the exception of the Great Trial, the Brighton Junior, and the Junior Champion, he had few of the real plums. In the two latter races his mount was so much the best, it was a gift.

"Shaw has for years been an exceedingly consistent jockey, excepting only when first he emerged from his retirement. He is one of the very few isolated instances where a jockey, suspended by the stewards, has ever regained his form. Glance back through the year for yourself if interested, there is nothing to be gained by raking up the dead issues.
 Shaw is esteemed by most good judges as the most finished horseman riding on the American turf in the past two or three years. He has been criticised wholesale, many rides have not been sufficient, but it is rarely indeed that one finds an old time, experience trainer seriously finding fault with Shaw's work. The exception, of course proves the rule.

"J. Martin was exceedingly lucky in having Accountant to make his total. Otherwise it would have been a poor one indeed, notwithstanding the fact that when Martin so wishes, he can ride more than a little.

"Radtkie is the query mark of the year. A good boy under many circumstances. Good hands, a good judge of a finish, and a hard finisher, it is simply miraculous, considering all the trouble he has deliberately looked for—and found—that he stands so high. Where he might have rated had he kept his skirts clear of trouble, is beyond computation. Reasoning even by analogy—that most fallacious of all reasoning—by adding to his gross total the equivalent of the twenty-eight or thirty days he lost, and his total swells to easily second on the list. Had owners had more confidence in Radtkie, had they been less afraid of his inexplicable tantrums, there is no knowing where his record might have soared. As it was, Miller had his most dangerous opponent tied by the leg most of the season. Even the stewards were under compunction in handling the little wasp, his replies being frequently so unorthodox, and unexpected, these were liable to place the stewards in a curiously unpleasant state of mind, even when most kindly inclined.

"Lyne is a finished rider, one of the best we have, when doing his best. Unfortunately he has, for years, been the apparent victim of circumstances.
 This is not said in any unkindness, but he left one prominent stable after finishing half his contract, he left another just when it was approaching its height of success, and he continued to ride here instead of going to France two years ago, as he then meditated. Had he gone to France, with the French consistency of weight, the French acceptance of when a boy is doing his best, the French owner's knowledge of that fact, and the eminently sound common sense which governs every detail of French racing (even more so than in England these days), Lyne would undoubtedly have done well. Probably much better than he has been able to do here, in his own country. In France there is not the same omnipresent 'looking for the best of it,' something we Americans fail to understand until we travel and live with them. A boy riding there knows that he may ride one extremely bad ride, possibly two, but he will not get another chance. The average owner, and trainer, is quick to note facts in a case, there is a rigid 'morale' underlying the majority, and when a boy is doing his best, most of those interested know it, and do not expect miracles.
 Further, they have a rather foolish idea—from our apparent standpoint—that age and experience increase a jockey's value as a rider, and the weights enable American boys to ride, who have to pass down and out here, simply because of our terrible list of 'weight off' every racing day. Lyne has probably ridden his last race, he finds it dangerous to reduce to our rigorous limit.

"J. Jones, the diminutive, is another whose good wins place him rather high. Carrying goodness only knows how much lead, under 125 pounds, Water Pearl won the rich Great American, and under 120 pounds the Tremont, under 117 pounds the Eclipse, while W. H. Daniel had Jones, plus lead to 120 pounds, when he won the Nursery. The widely circulated story that he is to ride for Mr. August Belmont in England this year has not an atom of truth in it, there was never the slightest foundation.
 Neither does Mr. Belmont meditate an extensive English campaign."

"WHITE HAT'S" KEEN HORSE TRADE.

McCarthy Tells How He Got Puryear D., Sire of Dr. Leggo, for $78.65.

A group of horsemen at Oakland were discussing Dr. Leggo's splendid victory in the Christmas Handicap when "White Hat" McCarthy joined them.
 When the spirit moves him, McCarthy is a racen-seur of turf tales of no mean ability. The conversation ebbed and flowed about McCafferty's horse when McCarthy grew reminiscent.

"That reminds me," said McCarthy, "of how I bought Puryear D., sire of Dr. Leggo, for $75.
 Shortly after he was thrown out of training by Barney Schreiber. Mr. Spreckels determined to get him, as he thought he would be a valuable addition to the breeding farm which he was conducting.
 He opened negotiations with Mr. Schreiber and got the horse at a big price.

"Now the men at the breeding farm who had charge of matters did not take to Puryear D. and his ability to produce good racehorses was very seriously doubted. Puryear D. fell into such dis-repute that Mr. Spreckels let him go for $75. J. D.
 Smith of Redwood City being the purchaser. I was ill when the sale was made, but I made up my mind to get Puryear D., so I got up early one morning and drove out to Smith's place. When I got close to his home a man yelled, 'Lo, White Hat,' and when I turned I saw the very man I was looking for.
 'Howdy, Mr. Smith,' I said to him, and after exchanging a few remarks about the weather, the crops and kindred subjects, Smith inquired what I was doing in Redwood.

"'Oh, I just thought I'd come down and buy a milch cow,' I replied, and Smith invited me to look at some he had for sale. While I was looking around I saw Puryear D. 'Well, Mr. Smith,' I said, 'I see you've got old Puryear D. here.' 'Yes,' returned Mr. Smith, 'I got him for $75, and I ain't much stuck on the bargain.' Now, when he made that remark, he pleased me more than if he had handed me a check for $10,000, but I concealed my joy.

"'Well, I could use him,' I told Smith, 'if the price was right.' 'You can have him for what I paid for him,' snapped up Smith, and I unloosed $75 as quickly as good grace, in the circumstances, would permit. I put a halter over Puryear D. and hustled him to a train, where he was packed on and brought to my place. The sire of Dr. Leggo stood me $78.65, the $3.65 representing freight charges.

"Shortly after I got the horse I met Mr. Spreckels and told him about Puryear D. When I gave him my opinion of the horse's prospects in the stud he grew mightily interested. 'What will you take for him?' he asked me. I told him that he stood me $78.65, and added that he could have him for that sum in cash, provided he gave his personal check on the side for $25,000 as a bonus. The bargain was not made, but afterwards I sold a half interest in him for $10,000.

"That was about as keen a trade in horseflesh as I ever pulled off, and to tell you the truth I forgot whether I even bought a cow with the horse or not. Mr. Spreckels again owns Puryear D., having recently bought him for a big price."

GOOD HEALTH AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

About Three Hundred Horses at the Track—
 Not One Sick—Joyner's Youngsters.

"A visit to the Sheepshead Bay course Sunday showed the track and grounds to be in perfect winter condition," says the Morning Telegraph.
 "The horses are in a most promising shape for the training ordeal that is not far distant. Jogging exercise has been indulged in all during the winter, and from present appearances the racers will come to hand much earlier than usual. There is not a sick horse of the three hundred racers wintering there, and all the trainers are confident that the early spring racing in the vicinity will be exceptionally good. Interest is, of course, largely centered in the two-year-old division quartered there, and no finer lot they believe ever wintered there before.

"The most extensive and important string of youngsters quartered there are in the hands of trainer A. J. Joyner, who has twenty-four in his barn that are owned as follows: Ten, Sydney Paget; four, P. Belmont; four, E. R. Thomas; three, August Belmont, and three that are the trainer's own property.

"The stable's three-year-olds, Water Pearl and Charles Edward, which performed so brilliantly last season, are wintering well and promise to race as well in their three as they did in their two-year-old form. The yearling trials of the youngsters, while being quite satisfactory, were not sensational, and the trainer is not certain yet which is the star of the string, and for that reason the railbirds will be all attention in the early spring trials to spot the good 'un of the Joyner string. They are all heavily engaged and their careers will be eagerly watched.

"The J. R. Keene extensive string is in the same favorable condition as Joyner's, and all eyes are watching for their names to appear in the Racing Calendar. Trainer Rowe is contemplating a trip to Mount Clemens for rheumatism and hopes to return in time to send them down the line in time for their spring preparation.

"Trainer W. H. Karriek, of the H. K. Knapp contingent, has a string of ten youngsters in his lot that are quartered in his stable on the backstretch ready for the training word. They are as forward as anything at the course, cost a lot of money, and should race with the best."

Golden Pearl, the half brother to Water Pearl and Sir Voorhies, is a member of the Joyner establishment. He is a chestnut colt by Golden Garter—Pearl V., and was knocked down to Mr. Joyner for $14,000 at the yearling sales last summer. Another is the sister to Hammeraway, by Hamburg—Clementina. She brought $10,000. Then there is the half brother to Sailor Lad. This is a chestnut colt by Star Ruby—Fussee, bought for $6,500. The full brother to Little Scout, by Lamplighter—Little Indian is another. His price as a yearling was $2,300. The half brother to Jurist is another. He is by Star Ruby—Royal Light and brought $4,500.
 Then there is the brown colt by Solitaire II.—Cattle Kate, $2,600; the bay colt by Juvenal—Blue and White, $1,150; the bay filly (half sister to Gold Cure), by Watercress—Methodic, $1,500; the chestnut colt, by Herbert—Fairland, $1,750; the brother to Highball, by Ben Strome—Strychnia, $10,500, and the chestnut colt, by Diadonne—Mary Mc-Coy, $4,700.

LOWLANDER'S ROMANTIC CAREER.

Inventors come from strange resting places.
 Patsey McDermott, the old-time jockey, is about to startle the world with a machine which is to treat horses by electricity, curing them of every ailment, by the mystic power which old Ben Franklin tried to draw from the cloud by his kite. So we may expect to see Electric Equine Parlors established at the tracks.

In the good old "Gut" days, when cakes and ale were plenty, and no happy man had a dull afternoon at his finger ends, certain electric appliances were much talked of. Patsey rode Lowlander to victory in the 1893 Suburban, with Fred Lowe running in a smaller circle round the infield, transmitting possible wireless electricities to Patsey, or the horse. Fred certainly was full of everything that should make a horse run, and a boy ride, for he had begged, and borrowed, and "touched" to the extreme limit of his deadbrookeness to "put it all" on the horse he knew would win, which did win, but Fred never saw it. He was face downwards in the long grass of the infield, falling all of a heap when he saw victory was absolutely assured, toddling in later, weak as a half-drowned cat, to receive congratulations as he feebly rushed to the telegraph ground throughout and finished fast. Susannah was speedy, but tired suddenly after five and a half furlong of pacemaking. Gold Heather showed speed and tired in the last hundred yards. Dr. Crook quit badly. Frascuolo closed a gap. The winner was in for $400; no bid.

 ning in a canter. Allerion ran his race, showing speed and easily maintaining a safe margin over the others. Colonel Bronston made up ground and, in a long stretch drive, finished resolutely. Redan showed speed, but tired in the final sixteenth. El Cazador finished gamely. The winner was in for $500; no bid.

Winner—Ch. f. by Pirate of Penzance—Harpy (trained by L. F. Marshall).
Went to post at 1:43. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Coco broke well in an inside position and was outpaced in the early running, but wore the leader down in a game stretch drive and got up in the last stride. Ella True singled out quickly from the others and made the running by a wide gap, but tired right at the end. Letitia S. was forward in the running to the stretch, where she tired, but held third place safe. Jezeel made up ground steadily. Calla retired early. Eulalie B. disliked the going. Sachet was shuffled to the rear at the start. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.
Scratched—59656 Princessa Leal, 110.

Winner—B. f. by Sain—Malaise (trained by H. Mack).
Went to post at 2:07. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third easily.
Blanche C. from a fast start, helped force the pace and drew out in the stretch with plenty in reserve. Anna Karenina set the pace to the stretch, where she tired in a game end struggle to save second place. Perless broke slowly and was outpaced in the early running, but finished with a belated rush. Perless Lasso, from an inside position, got away flatfooted and was never dangerous. Lugano, away poorly, loomed up menacingly on the far turn, then quit badly and probably was short. Duke of Orleans showed a brief dash of speed. The winner was bid up from $400 to $700 by S. Polk and retained.

Went to post at 2:34. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving; third the same.
Nonie Lucille broke from the rear on the inside in deep going, but worked rapidly to the front and won in a canter. Batidor, from a striding start, maintained a good position and finished well, but was a lucky second. Dr. Sherman had a flying start, but was outpaced in the early running and finished with a rush. Roscoe closed an early gap and was a forward contender to the last turn, where he was shuffled back and came again. Frolic, away badly on the inside, closed an immense gap. Duelist was closing up with a rush in the stretch. The Missourian finished well up. Petit Duc showed superior speed for a half mile and was short. The winner was bid up from $400 to $1,200 by M. C. Mahan and bought in.
Scratched—66167 Angletta, 103.

Winner—Ch. g. by Handsome—Tchoupetoulas (trained by F. Marshall).
Went to post at 3:03. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same.
Hector, from a flying start, was allowed to hold sway undisturbed for the first half and luckily lasted out the journey. Mary F. was reserved hard behind the leader, but could not get up when called on for a short end sprint. Ocean Shore was close up in the early running, but dropped back and was inadequately handled in the last quarter. Van Ness was outrun all the way and never dangerous and came on late in a bad race that should be thrown out. Miss Officious, away poorly, trailed hopelessly in a rear position throughout and had no chance with her ride.
